

OHIO VALLEY EDUCATIONAL COOPERATIVE
JOB POSTING
AMERICAN HISTORY CURRICULUM SPECIALIST

The Ohio Valley Educational Cooperative has an immediate opening for an American History Curriculum Specialist. The American History Curriculum Specialist will be responsible to the Teaching American History Director. A bachelor's degree in education is required with preference given to candidates having an advanced degree. Five years teaching experience in American History, including literacy integration into classroom instruction, is also required. It is also necessary to possess strong leadership and communication skills and be certified to teach American History. The position is for 100 days per year and the salary is based on the OVEC Certified Schedule. The position is open until Friday, 11/18/11, or until filled. Apply to Human Resources by completing the on-line pdf application and either emailing it to kmurphy@ovec.org, faxing it to the attention of Human Resources, fax #502-647-3581, or mailing the application to Human Resources, PO Box 1249, Shelbyville, KY 40066.

EOE