

21st Century Writing and the Eng/LA Kentucky Core Academic Standards

WORKSHOP DESCRIPTION

OVEC and KDE are partnering to provide a regional Writing training that is designed to meet very specific needs expressed by our region's administrators and classroom leaders. The focus of this workshop will be effective Writing instruction necessary to meet proficiency and college/career ready goals as well as On-Demand Writing assessment. Teachers from all grades and content areas are welcome!

Presenters from the KDE Office of Next Generation Learners include:

- Renee Boss: KDE Academic Core Branch Manager; Division of Program Standards
- Jackie Rogers: KDE Literacy Consultant; Division of Program Standards
- Denise Amos: KDE English Language Arts Specialist for OVEC Region

Session Goals:

- Strategies for Meeting the Goal of Proficient and College/Career Ready Learners Prepared for the 21st Century
- Understanding the Reading/Writing Package: Students Thinking Critically by Responding to Text Through Writing
- The Instructional Connection Between KCAS and the Types of Writing that are Assessed with On-Demand Writing in Kentucky

Date/Location/Time:

Wednesday, March 7, 2012 8:30-3:30 OVEC, Shelbyville, KY

Cost: $20.00 per person

- Breakfast pastries & lunch will be served. Workshop qualifies for 6 Hours EILA credit. Come prepared to Learn!

Registration will be online at <http://www.ovec.org/>

For questions about the workshop, contact Shannon Treece at streece@ovec.org or Sandy Elmore at SElmore@ovec.org